- respondents will easily know the answer to the question(s)
- The question(s) is easy and quick to answer

Assessment criteria 4

The topic would be acceptable to Census respondents.

You may wish to consider the following points in your response.

- the topic is not likely to be considered intrusive, offensive or controversial
- respondents are likely to be willing and able to answer accurately
- are there other considerations for specific groups?

Assessment criteria 5

The topic can be collected efficiently.

You may wish to consider the following points in your response.

- the topic or question will not present major difficulties for coding the information
- the topic or question will not require extensive processing
- the topic will not significantly add to the overall cost of the Census
- the topic will not require a lengthy instruction or explanation
- the collection of data on the topic will not require a large number of response categories or multiple questions

Assessment criteria 6

There is likely to be a continuing need for data on this topic in the following Census.

You may wish to consider the following points in your response.

- there is a need for time series data on the topic
- the topic is likely to remain relevant in the future

Assessment criteria 7

There are no other alternative data sources or solutions that could meet the topic need.

You may wish to consider the following possible data sources and identify any barriers to access in your response.

- data which is collected for administrative purposes
- the topic is collected in an ABS survey or by another organisation
- data is produced through integration of existing data sources
